Bali, November 2016; Furama Villas & Spa Ubud, Bali is express its love for the nature continuously with a regular tree planting activity with their respective guests.

As part of its serious commitment to natural conservation and sustainability, Furama

Villas & Spa Ubud always encourage their guests to take part on a tree planting program surround the beautiful resort's ground. Last 23 November 2016, our guest Mr. and Mrs.

Pipprell had the honored to join the regular activity. Together with the resort's management, led by General Manager, I Wayan Sumandia, the guest was proudly plant a Balinese Sunkist tree in front of their villa.

Balinese Sunkist plant is an original tree which native to Bali's soil. With the program, the Management's wish to preserve the original Balinese plant, in their local habitat. The initiative is surely in line with the green compound concept of the tranquil villa resort.

Only 20 minute drive from the famous Ubud Market, the villa resort comprises 24 serene private pool villas, surrounded by vast rice paddy fields and lush greeneries which could be explored through the villa resort's guided trekking or guided cycling activities. At Furama Villas and Spa Ubud, Bali, guests will enjoy the true natural beauty of the tropical Island of Gods. [PR/FVS]
